Accessory/Optional Uniform Items: All-Weather Coat (AWC) may be worn/prescribed for wear with all uniforms. Occasions for wear and liberty are the same as for the basic uniform with which it is worn. Black gloves always worn or carried with the AWC in winter. The tanker jacket may be worn with the blue dress "C"/"D," service "B"/"C," or blue dress and service with sweater. When worn, occasions for wear and leave/liberty are the same as for the basic uniform with which it is worn. The jacket will be worn zipped up to at least the top of the side slash pockets. Green wool scarf and black gloves may be worn with service or utility uniforms during the winter uniform period. The AWC and tanker jacket may be worn, without insignia, with civilian clothing.

Organizational Equipment: Field jackets may be issued/prescribed for wear with utilities. Unless otherwise prescribed, the ECWCS parka may be worn with utilities at the individual's option, or as designated when issued for wear. Sam Browne belts may be issued/prescribed to officers only for wear with blue dress "A"/"B," blue-white "A"/"B," and service "A." Service Belts may be issued/prescribed for wear with the service "B"/"C," blue dress "D" and AWC for officers and with the service uniforms and AWC for SNCO's and NCO's. Both belts are worn only for parades, ceremonies and reviews when the sword is prescribed, or at such times as are deemed appropriate by the local commander.
