SECNAV INSTRUCTION 5510. 33

From: Secretary of the Navy

Subj: Protection of Classified National Security Council and Intelligence Information

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 5510.1F

Encl: (1) DOD Instruction 5230.21 of 15 Mar 1982

1. Purpose. To promulgate enclosure (1) and to prescribe procedures for its implementation.

2. Policy. As directed by enclosure (1), classified National Security Council (NSC) and intelligence information shall be disseminated within the Department of the Navy to the absolute minimum number of individuals consistent with operating requirements. Additionally, any unauthorized disclosure of classified NSC or intelligence information shall be fully investigated and responsible individuals appropriately disciplined.

3. Procedures

a. Classified NSC Information

(1) The Department of the Navy office initially receiving or creating classified NSC information shall ensure that dissemination and reproduction of that information is limited to the absolute minimum consistent with operational requirements.

(2) The Department of the Navy office initiating, receiving or creating classified NSC information shall ensure that an NSC information cover sheet, DD Form 2275, is attached to each copy and used in accordance with the instructions in paragraph G of enclosure (1). Copies of the DD Form 2275 are available from the SECNAV Administrative Division. Executed copies of DD Form 2275 shall be maintained by the office controlling the document for 2 years after the date of the last recorded access.

(3) Any unauthorized disclosure of classified NSC information shall be reported to the Chief of Naval Operations

SECNAVINST 5510.33

23 JUN 1982

(Op-009DX) and shall be investigated in accordance with chapter 2, section 2 of reference (a) (Symbol DD-OPNAV-5510-1 applies). CNO (OP-009DX) will review the report of investigation to ensure the unauthorized disclosure was effectively investigated and appropriate sanctions imposed for violators.

(b) Classified Intelligence Information. Classified intelligence information shall be disseminated and unauthorized disclosures investigated in accordance with the policy in reference (a) and any additional procedures promulgated by CNO (OP-009DX).

  - (d) NSDD Number 2, "National Security Council Structure," January 12, 1982
  - (e) through (g), see enclosure 1

A. PURPOSE

This Instruction implements references (a) and (b) to establish policies, procedures, and responsibilities for the protection of classified National Security Council (NSC) and intelligence information.

B. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments, the Organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Defense Agencies (hereafter referred to as "DoD Components").

C. DEFINITIONS

1. Classified Information. Information owned by, produced for or by, or under the control of the U.S. Government that, under reference (c) or prior orders, requires protection against unauthorized disclosure.

2. Classified NSC Information (hereafter called "NSC information"). Classified information contained in all documents prepared by or for the NSC, its interagency groups, as defined in reference (d), and its associated committees and groups. The term also includes deliberations of the NSC, its interagency groups, and its associated committees and groups.

D. POLICY

It is the policy of the Department of Defense that the number of officials with access to documents containing NSC and classified intelligence information shall be kept to a minimum, and that specific protection is required to preclude the unauthorized disclosure of such information. When it is determined that a DoD employee has violated or permitted the violation of security requirements of DoD 5200.1-R (reference (e)) or this Instruction, causing an unauthorized disclosure of NSC information, such individual shall be subject to administrative sanctions prescribed in reference (e) and, furthermore, may be removed from employment. The Department of Defense shall comply with the procedures discussed in subsection F.2. for the protection of classified intelligence information.

E. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy (DUSD(P)) shall monitor compliance with this Instruction. In discharging this responsibility, the DUSD(P) may require the investigation of unauthorized disclosures of NSC or intelligence information, in accordance with DoD Directive 5210.50 (reference (f)).

2. The Heads of DoD Components shall comply with this Instruction. In discharging this responsibility, they shall:

a. Initiate formal investigations of unauthorized disclosures of NSC or intelligence information and shall be notified of the results so that administrative sanctions may be imposed, if appropriate.

b. Advise the DUSD(P) of investigative results and of any administrative sanctions imposed.

F. PROCEDURES

1. DoD Components that create or possess NSC information shall develop procedures to ensure that the number of individuals with access to such information is held to the absolute minimum consistent with operational requirements and needs. These procedures shall provide for strict control of dissemination and reproduction of documents containing NSC information and shall require that a demonstrable need for access to such information be shown before access is granted.

2. Special procedures shall be established pursuant to "Implementation of NSDD-19" (reference (b)) by the Director of Central Intelligence for the protection of classified intelligence information within his control. These procedures shall be adhered to strictly by DoD Components having possession or knowledge of this information.

3. Investigations involving unauthorized disclosure of NSC or classified intelligence information shall be conducted in accordance with reference (f). Use of the polygraph in connection with such investigations shall be in accordance with DoD Directive 5210.48 (reference (g)).

G. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

To provide a record of those personnel who have access to NSC information, a numbered cover sheet, DD Form 2275, "National Security Council Information" (enclosure 2), shall be attached to each copy of a document containing NSC information at the time it is submitted to an Assistant Secretary of Defense or equivalent-level official.

Mar 15, 82
5230.21

1. As a condition of access to documents containing NSC information, each individual determined to have a "need-to-know" shall sign DD Form 2275.

2. The "No. ____" space on DD Form 2275 shall reflect the assigned document number. The "Copy ____" space shall indicate the copy number of the document. If not already present, these numbers shall be assigned at the time of submission to an Assistant Secretary of Defense or equivalent-level official.

3. Executed copies of DD Form 2275 shall be maintained for at least 2 years after the date of the last recorded access.

H. EFFECTIVE DATE AND IMPLEMENTATION

This Instruction is effective immediately. Forward two copies of implementing documents to the Under Secretary of Defense for Policy within 120 days.

Richard G. Stilwell
General, USA (Ret.)
Acting Under Secretary of Defense for Policy
