

Advance Planning Brief to Industry

May 2008

Handheld Flashlight

MGySgt Kevin Myer
Support Equipment and Mountain Cold Weather Team
Infantry Combat Equipment, Marine Corps Systems Command
E-mail: kevin.myer@usmc.mil
Office Phone: 703-432-3252

(Replacement) Handheld Flashlight

Requirement Document

- Urgent Statement of Need (USON) dtd 29 Feb 2008 (MCCDC)

(Some) Desired Performance characteristics

- Blue / Red / White / IR light source.
- Compatible with all DOD inventory AA batteries with same form / fit / function.
- Durable: (ten repeated five foot drops on concrete floor).
- Identification and Operational by feel while wearing DOD inventory gloves (flame-retardant / cold weather contact).
- Operational in temps range of -40 to 150.
- Waterproof to three feet of water for one hour.

(Replacement) Handheld Flashlight

- (Some) Desired Physical Characteristics

- Compact size.
- Light weight.
- Pivoting Head.
- Hands free light source (stand alone on deck).
- Provision for projecting specific white (primary color), blue, red and infrared light (IR) without installing filter caps or lenses.
- Adjustable illumination for ALL light colors starting with dimmest and progressing to the brightest setting.
- Belt / Clothing clip.

Features “NOT” considered as added value

- Weapon or Head born system integration features.

Handheld Flashlight

Current Status

- Request for information (RFI) Completed March 08.
- Request for Proposals (RFP) June 08. (Tentative)
- Contract Sept 08. (Tentative)
- Estimated Unit Cost - $45.00 (Tentative)
- Concept of Distribution- Based on current allocation of Individual load bearing equipment (ILBE) and the / Recon (ILBE).
- AO of 221,463. (Estimated)
- Substainment – DLA or GSA.

Questions?

